VALUABLE PLANTATION FOR SALE!

ON THE SECOND THURSDAY IN DECEMBER, that being the 13th day of the month, I will sell to the highest bidder, upon the premises, that desirable lately owned, and resided upon, by Miss Elizabeth Hinton, dec'd.

COTTON PLANTATION,

The tract is situated on Neuse River, six miles East of Raleigh, on the Tarboro' Road, adjoining the lands of David Hinton. It contains ELEVEN HUNDRED AND NINETY-FIVE ACRES, of land,—from THREE TO FOUR HUNDRED of which are cleared. About 180 acres are fine low grounds, not liable to over-flow. This is considered one of the best Cotton Plantations in the County, and the bottom land will always produce enough Corn to sustain it.

THE IMPROVEMENTS

consist of a handsome Dwelling House, containing seven rooms, located on a commanding site. There are three frame houses also on the premises, with two rooms each, and all necessary out-houses, cabins, barns, gin house, carriage house, &c.

As this land will be sold on the liberal credit of only one-third cash, the balance payable in one, two and three years, a rare opportunity is afforded to parties wishing to purchase a first-class farm.

Personal security will be required, and title will be with-held until the last payment is made.

NOTE.—This Land will be divided into three tracts, the House-tract 600 acres, another tract of 350 acres, and another of 245, plots of which may be seen at my office above Creech's Store.

INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS.

Scientific men, who thoroughly understand the subject, concur with great unanimity in saying that nothing exerts such a deleterious influence against health as bad bread. The remedy is at hand in SIMPSON'S INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS, the value of which is thus certified:

RALEIGH, Aug. 24, 1866.

I have tested the Yeast Powders you manufacture and can recommend them as vastly superior to any other ever used by me. In addition to the lightness and sweetness of the bread, the powders are economical, as one-third the lard usually required will answer in the making of either loaf bread or biscuit. For pastries and cakes they are excellent.

VIRGINIA A. ORR.

The price of these powders per package is 25 cts. or 75 cts. per pound. To be had at Wm. Simpson's Confectionary Store, Fayetteville Street, Raleigh, N. C.

RALEIGH, Aug. 23, 1866.

This is to certify that I have used Mr. Simpson's Yeast Powders and find them to be superior to any I have ever used. After trying them once no housekeeper will be satisfied without them.

MRS. S. D. HARRISON.

THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, } Editors.
SEATON GALES. }

Wednesday Evening, Dec. 5, 1866.

The Senator Elect.

The misrepresentations of the Northern press, perhaps, demand a remark or two. Mr Pool is now claimed by the Radicals as preferrable to the Senator elect, but will they accept Mr. P?—Not at all.

There is a difference manifestly between Mr. P. and the Senator elect to fill the next term.—The latter was an earnest supporter of the late war, the former was not. The one thought it was right, as an unavoidable necessity forced upon us, and therefore supported it; the other thought it was unnecessary and wrong, but, nevertheless, gave it support and encouragement. The one wore a true face throught that troubled time; the other assumed a false one, as Mr. Holden did, and pretended to be what he was not. It is submitted in all frankness and candor to Northern men of every political hue, which should now be considered the more reliable citizen of the United States.

Since the capitulation of our armies, Judge Manly has submitted to the terms of restoration prescribed by the President, has taken the amnesty oath, been pardoned by the President, was in the Philadelphia Convention of 14th August and assented to the action of that body, and in every respect, has demeaned himself as a man solicitous to have the people restored to their rights under the Constitution, and the respective governments, national and State, made to assume their wonted action.

Mr. Pool during all this time has been laboring with a party in this State, whose object appears to be to prevent a restoration; to keep us under military rule,—under a rule similar to the pro-consular despotisms in the conquered provinces of ancient Rome. This is done by Mr. Pool and his Confederates, under the plea that the great body of their fellow citizens are insincere in their present submission to law and support of government. We submit again to every fair minded man in the United States, if a change of our Senator was not demanded, in order to vindicate the character of the State, for truthfulness and honor, for sincerity and loyalty.

By a reference to the Supreme Court reports, two decisions only will be found, which can be supposed to have any material bearing upon political affairs. The one establishing the constitutionality of the conscription law, in which Judges Manly and Battle concurred; the other wherein it was decided by the Court, that persons between 45 and 50 years of age who were conscribed for military duty under the act of Congress, upon arriving at 50, were entitled to be discharged, from which Judge Manly dissented.

In the first case, the concurrence of two Judges, relieves it from any suspicion of political bias, when the political views of Judge Battle and his clear and dispassionate judgment as manifested by a long judicial course, are considered.

The dissenting opinion of Judge Manly in the latter case agrees with the subsequently delivered opinions of eminent Judges of Virginia and we learn also in Georgia. In both cases the opinion of the Judge called in question, is in conformity with the rulings in other States, as we are informed. But differences of opinion, even among Judges, will exist, and when as in the case of our Supreme Court, as it has always been constituted, of men of the highest integrity, there is no ground whatever to attribute improper motives to any.

What is there unfavorable from all this, more than a decision on the part of Judge Manly, to carry out the laws of the Confederate States according to his best judgment, in sincerity and truth. If there was any hardship in it, it was a hardship of the law, which the Judge had no part in making.

The Congress.

The spirit with which the dominant party in the present Congress enter upon propositions which seriously affect the peace and prosperity of the South, is calculated to produce depression and discouragement. To these may be added, the persistent efforts of the disaffected in the South, to induce Congress to break up the present governments of the States and to throw them into provisional or territorial governments. We observe that some of the citizens of the State, in public meetings, are adopting resolutions to that effect. Some who have enjoyed some respectability, are promoting this design. They may, under the untoward times in which we live, accomplish their object—they may succeed in degrading and ruining the State and fixing the stamp of disfranchisement upon their fellow-citizens, "whose shoe's latchet they are not worthy to unloose;" but when they do this, to secure a temporary, sinister advantage, they will only sink themselves into deeper infamy, and plant their pillows in the future with thorns which cannot be extracted.

Yet we cannot believe, that truth and right and the constitution can be much longer outraged. We are not willing to believe, that even the Radical party in Congress, can be so duped by these designing, bad men, who seeks to reek a personal or political vengeance upon the great body of their own fellow citizens, who simply honestly differ with them. If they get into their hands the offices of the State which they seek, their utter incompetency will soon be made so apparent, that they cannot be retained, but must be displaced by better men who cannot countenance their conduct, or men imported from the Northern States.

Comptroller Brogden.

Our correspondent, "Justice," on yesterday, we learn, was wholly in error about the time which he alleged Gen. Brogden has been in office. It will not be nine years until the 1st day of January next, and then not Comptroller during the Provisional government. The reader will note Mr. McNair's explanation in the proceedings of the House to-day.

THE SENTINEL.

Wednesday Evening, Dec. 5, 1866.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Not having room for particular notice to-day, we call special attention to new advertisements.

CONCERT AT WAKE FOREST.—There will be given at Wake Forest College, on Wednesday evening, Dec. 12th next, a Vocal and Instrumental Concert, for the benefit of Wake Forest Church. The public may expect fine entertainment.

The Charlotte Guardian says, that John S. Means Esq., has sold his valuable farming and mining property to a Northern firm, and that he received for it $20,000 in gold. The company will work the mine. This is gratifying.

Mr. Henry M. Bolton, an excellent young man of Charlotte, says the Times, fell from the back steps of the Charlotte Hotel, on Tuesday last, fracturing his skull so badly, that he survived but a few hours.

A rattle snake was killed in Gaston county a short time since, said to be over six feet in length, and in size as large as a man's thigh. It had 26 rattles and one button—supposed to be 27 years old. So we learn from the Charlotte Guardian.

Direct Trade.

The energy displayed by the friends of direct trade from Norfolk, Va., to Europe, in affecting that object, is remarkable. Their perseverance deserves encouragement. Two vessels employed in that trade, have been lost, yet they are not discouraged.

The Norfolk Day Book of the 29th ult. states that the Steamship Bosphorus arrived on the 28th at Boston, and will reach Norfolk about the 7th or 8th inst., to load direct for Europe.—It expresses the hope that the merchants of Norfolk and Portsmouth and the farmers of Virginia and North Corolina will exert themselves to have a full freight ready for her. The Agents of this line are men of energy and reliability and do their utmost to give satisfaction.

The "Southern Loyalists," alias, "Red Strings," are circulating among the friends of Gov. Wells in Louisiana, a petition requesting Congress to establish provisional governments in the Southern States, until the full re-admission of the States.

For the Sentinel.

ELIZABETH CITY, N. C., Nov. 1866.

Dear Sentinel:—After many ups and downs I find myself comfortably ensconced before a large blazing wood fire at Ballance's Hotel.

The terrible effects of war are still visible in this once beautiful village. The Court House, Lee's large Hotel, Williams' Hotel, Laverty's handsome mansion and other costly residences belonging to men once wealthy, are lying now in ashes and ruin. Knowing Elizabeth City as you once knew it, were you to see it now, it would cause you to sigh, if not to shed a tear, in memory of its departed glory. Business seems to be dull, and were it not for the little life that the Saturday's trade with freedmen imparts to mercantile life, the tradesmen's vocation would be dull—very dull. Perhaps the drug business should be excepted, at least one would suppose so from the appearance of things around the elegant store of our quandom fellow-citizen, Walter Poole, Esq.

The depressed condition of the country is operating sadly on the people, yet some think that "there is life in the old land yet." The county of Pasquotank, you know, was never a cotton growing country. Eminently suited to the production of cereals, its planters and farmers have found the production of wheat and corn too remunerative to have their attention diverted by the white charms of king cotton. This was the case in former years. But the great scarcity of greenbacks, and the high price of cotton, has brought a change in the public mind, and this year old Pasquotank will roll out 400 bales of cotton, wherewith to replenish her pecuniary wants. A few years more, with crops like the present, and I think that Elizabeth City will shine forth, as in days of yore.

The ride in stage coach on the east bank of the Dismal Swamp Canal is as interesting as ever. The rude hand of war cannot deprive the country of the charms with which the hand of nature has so luxuriantly invested this highly favored section of North Carolina. Nature has done everything, art but little, to beautify this interesting country. The far-famed old hostelry at the outlet of the feeder of the lake of the Dismal Swamp, still lies in ashes. Twice I passed it in going and returning from Elizabeth City, and twice did my digestive organs, as did those of my fellow passengers, give sad signs of a painful vacum in the region of the stomach. No spot in our State presents a more favorable point for the erection of a good hotel, for besides the patronage afforded by passengers in the United States Mail coach twice a day, there is a considerable amount of private travel; and pleasure parties in summer, from Norfolk, Portsmouth, Elizabeth City and other points, greatly miss Lake Drummond Hotel as a point d'appui, from which to make excursions into the celebrated lake. Being built immediately on the State line, you are aware that it was long the Gretna Green of fugitive lovers in Virginia, seeking Hymen's altar. On such occasions, mine host of that day was particularly polite, as the young votaries were too happy to mind expense, and by lavish expenditure endeavored to make all around them happy.

By the kind forethought of Judge Brooks, some of our passengers were relieved of the pangs of hunger, for soon after reaching the old site of the old hotel, the Judge opened his carpet bag, from which he drew forth an ample supply. A thoughtful servant at the hotel anticipating the contingency, had provided a needful snack for others, so that we accomplished a pleasant ride without much gastric suffering.—On the banks of the canal we met Col. Dennis Ferebee, late of the Confederate States army.—Our old fellow-soldier, Cincinnatus like, has laid aside the sword and taken hold of the plow. He owns some of the finest lands in the State, and with good faithful tenants, he will never lack for the staff of life. From the appearance of the soil, the low flat surface of the land, one would suppose the country was unhealthy, but the people residing there are among the healthiest, most robust, that I have met in any part of the State. But I will close lest your patience become wearied.

THE 'BORO.'

Radical Programme.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.

The committee appointed by the Radical caucus to prepare a programme have their document ready for presentation.

It contemplates the entire abolition of the State Governments South, and provides for the appointment of commissioners for each State who shall have power to appoint all civil and military officers to preserve peace.

The Radicals differ among themselves on the franchise question. Some of them favor confining the right of suffrage to "loyalists," including negroes. Some say that Congress should designate who may vote, while others wish all to vote who now vote under State laws.

The new constitutions are to be submitted to the people, but only those will vote who are enfranchised by them as was done in Maryland.

If the constitution be adopted by these voters, then the States are to be admitted. If not, they will then be placed under territorial governments.

The commissioners are to be authorized to organize the militia, including negroes, to enforce the provisions of the bill, and if called out are to be quartered on those rendering the call necessary.

Such are the leading points in the new programme as urged by the Radicals and Southern loyalists.

The committee consists of Messrs. Thad Stevens, Washburne, Schenck, Hart, Garfield, McRuer, Pike, Orth, Allison and Paine.

The Washington correspondent of the Richmond Examiner, makes the following remarks upon this movement:

The proceedings of the caucus are, on the whole, to be considered as a declaration of hostilities against the President and his policy.

The Republican members come here much divided in opinion as to the course proper for Congress to take in future, relative to reconstruction, now that their proposed amendment has failed. There appears to be several distinct plans now in contemplation, and each plan has its advocates, among the members. Some are in favor of adhering to the Congressional proposition, excluding the recusant States from representation, until it shall be finally ratified. These men say, in so many words, if the South can wait, the North can wait also. Senator Fessenden, who is chairman of the Reconstruction Committee, on the Senate side, is one of the supporters of this idea.

The extreme Radicals are in favor of establishing for the State government of seceded States territorial governments. There is also a party in favor of an adjustment upon the basis of impartial suffrage and universal amnesty.—There is another party that has declared in favor of enforcing the constitutional amendment as soon as it shall be ratified by three-fourths of the loyal States. But this last scheme is met by the objection that the terms of the new article proposed as an amendment, recognize the authority of the several excluded States for the purpose of accepting or rejecting it.

All these, and, perhaps, other plans are to be discussed at this session, but, as it is thought, will be turned over to the next Congress. I have no doubt that a bill will be enacted convening the fortieth Congress at an earlier day than usual. Members will be loth to spend their salaries here, but they can make no excuse to the country for leaving it in a chaotic state.

The Richmond Enquirer, a judicious paper, says:

The programme there marked out, will hardly be carried out. The President is bound by his oath to maintain the State governments in their just rights,—and any attempt to abolish them by Congress as proposed by the caucus, would necessitate a collision. Besides the North is directly interested against such wicked folly. The injury it would inflict upon us, would not weigh a moment we know; but Heaven has mercy when man has none, and has so ordered it that outrage and anarchy cannot be visited here, without reacting at the North, and working disaster there. The sensible men of the North desire peace as well as we; and enough of them will refuse to concur in this new programme of distraction and turmoil, to throw the agitators into a minority. So we believe. Stevens, by his wild cavortings, will break his own neck.

News From Fortress Monroe.

FORTRESS MONROE, Nov. 29. C. C. Clay leaves here for Petersburg in the morning. Mrs. Clay went North to-night.

H. Rives Pollard and J. Marshall Hanna, formerly of the Richmond Examiner, arrived here to-day, on a visit to Jefferson Davis, but were refused admission into the fortress.

GENERAL SHERMAN'S MISSION AS VIEWED BY THE LONDON TIMES.—General Sherman has been sent on an extraordinary mission to Mexico. Everybody is asking what he is going to do there. There need be but little mystery about this business. The United States mean to drive not only the French troops, but Maximilian himself, out of Mexico, and to lend all the support they can give to the government of Juarez. This may be very impudent on the part of America, and very fatal to the prospects of Mexico; but there is, in our day, nobody strong or reckless enough to give a decided "No" to American dictation.—The London Sunday Times Nov. 18.

THE WESTERN CORN CROP.—The Chicago Republican says: "We have met and talked with farmers representing nearly the entire corn region affected by frost, and the uniform testimony is that the crop is depreciated fully one-third. Its value, if not the aggregate amount, is so depreciated.

PRESBYTERIAN GENERAL ASSEMBLY.—The General Assembly in session at Memphis, after the long and interesting debate on the relations of the freedmen to the church, finally decided, by a unanimous vote, that they should be received into full fellowship in the church, and on equal grounds as brothers in Christ.

A Washington dispatch to the Boston Post says: "Thad. Stevens is in very bad health, and his nearest friends express a fear that he is failing. He has begun to limit the attendance at his impromptu receptions, and refuses to talk upon existing political topics."

Bishop Coxe, of Western New York, threatens to refuse ordination to any candidate for orders who holds the Doctrines of Dr. Pusey's Eirenicon. But the Church Journal says: "We told him plainly that he dare not do it." He knows that he dare not do it.

ALABAMA—IMPARTIAL SUFFRAGE.—In the Alabama House of Representatives, on the 1st inst, Mr. Brooks presented a bill to alter the constitution of the State so as to admit of conditional negro suffrage. The conditions are that the voter shall possess property to the amount of two hundred dollars, and shall be able to read the constitution of the State and the United States, and write a legible hand. The conditions also to hold good in the case of white men.

Mr. Brooks was closely identified with the Confederate cause, having expended his last dollar in its support, and in presenting the bill he said he did so as a measure of policy and for the public good.

After an exciting debate the bill was tabled.

TELEGRAPHIC.

Our Wednesday Morning Dispatches.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.

The House of Representatives to day adopted a resolution inquiring into the expediency of repealing the cotton tax.

Mr. Broonall, of Pa., also offered a resolution which was adopted by a vote of 107 to 37, instructing the committee on territories to enquire into the propriety of extending territorial organization over the States lately in insurrection.

Mr. Stevens offered a resolution for the appointment of a committee of five to report to the House at its next session the past and present relations existing between the general government and the railroads in the States lately in rebellion, the amount of money expended in constructing, repairing, equipping and managing such roads; the amount now due each one of them to the government; also as to the course to be taken by the government in relation to said roads.

The joint committee on reconstruction is revived.

The House committee on the judiciary have reported against repealing so much of the confiscation act as prohibits the forfeiture of the real estate of the included classes, beyond the term of their natural lives. They say to forfeit altogether the property of those engaged in the late rebellion would be the enactment of ex post facto law within the meaning of the constitutional interdicts, by annexing to a crime already committed a new and additional punishment.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.

The heads of Bureaus of the Treasury Department, have joined in a letter to the House Committee on ways and means, urging the passage of the bill prepared at the last session for the reorganization of that Department.

Canadian Matters.

NEW YORK, Dec. 5.

A private letter received at Montreal, states that the only surviving descendant of Christopher Columbus will shortly visit America.

A large number of French Canadians are returning from the U. States to Canada for want of employment.

It is reported that secret Fenian meetings have been held at St. Albans, but nothing serious is anticipated.

At Toronto, a man named McDewitt, from New Brunswick, has been arrested for using seditious language, daring the government to hang the Fenians.

Members from Nebraska.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5.

The Senators and Representatives from Nebraska have arrived. They will present their State Constitution and memorial asking for admission. An act will have to be passed for this purpose.

Latest from Congress.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5.

The Senate adopted the standing committees agreed upon by Republican members in caucus to-day. They remain as they were, except that Messrs. Doolittle, Cowan and Dixon were removed from their positions. No committees are now headed by friends of the administration.

Mr, Wade introduced a bill for the admission of Nebraska into the Union. Laid on the table for the present.

The committees for the session were announced. Mr. Williams introduced a resolution instructing the committee on retrenchments to inquire to what extent the President has a right to restore confiscated property under the laws of the U. S. and if such law exists to what extent it can be executed, &c. Adopted.

Mr. Trumbull, moved the reference of the bill for the repeal of the President's amnesty power, to the committee on the Judiciary. This gave rise to a debate, at the conclusion of which the bill was referred.

Mr. Sumner offered the resolutions on reconstruction, of which he gave notice yesterday.—They assert the right of Congress over the subject of reconstruction, and deny the right of the lately rebellious States to pass upon constitutional amendments. Read and ordered to be printed.

Mr. Williams, of Pa., called up the bill of last session for the regulation of appointments to and removals from office, and addressed the House in advocacy of it.

Colorado Jewett.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5.

Colorado Jewett is out in a memorial to Congress insisting that Hannibal Hamlin is the proper representative and successor of Mr. Lincoln, upon the ground that the election of Mr. Lincoln at his last term and Mr. Johnson, were not legally elected, because eleven of the States appointed no Electors. He urges the Congress therefore, to place Mr. Hamlin in position, upon the ground that he is the only legal officer, who of right is President.

Repudiation in Mississippi meets with few advocates. General Rueben Davis, who made himself notorious by the former unfortunate action of that State, is again urging the people to another scheme of repudiation, but he meets with no favor.

A New and Grand Epoch in Medicine!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitarians, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so-called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggil's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble, it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disinfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is announced that Maggiel's Billious, Dyspepsia and Diarrhoea Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin, Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 11 Pine St., New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

The Louisville Journal says: "The testimonials which Dr. Gardner presents to the public could never have been obtained, except by the display of great skill and learning in his profession. One thing especially commendable in the Doctor's practice is, that he will not attempt an incurable disease for the sake of a fee, but frankly tells the patient whether he can be cured or not. We cheerfully recommend Dr. Gardner to the attention of all our friends who may be suffering from diseases of the eye or ear.

The Richmond Times says: We have no hesitation in saying that Dr. Gardner is the most scientific and successful eye and ear Surgeon in this country.

"We feel justified in recommending Doctor Gardner to those suffering from diseases of the eye and ear."—Richmond Whig.

"We can safely and cordially recommend Dr. Gardner, who will fulfill all he undertakes to perform."—Baltimore Clipper.

The New Orleans True Delta says: "We can safely recommend Dr. Gardner as a successful operator on the eye and ear. He will not undertake to treat a case unless a cure can be effected.

The Wheeling Register says: "Dr. Gardner is one of the most successful Oculists and Aurists in the country. We advise those suffering from the diseases of the eye and ear to consult him."

SOMETHING NEW

UNDER THE SUN.

A New Era In Medicine

☞ Let the Suffering and Diseased read the following.

☞ Let all who have been given up by Doctor and spoken of as incurable, read the following.

☞ Let all who can believe facts and can have faith in evidence, read the following:

Know all men by these presents, That on this, the Twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-Six, personally came Joseph Haydock to me, known as such, and being duly sworn, deposed as follows: That he is the sole general agent for the United States, and dependencies thereof, for preparations or medicines known as MAGGIEL'S PILLS and SALVE, and that the following certificates are verbatim copies to the best of his knowledge and belief.

JAMES SMEITER,
L. S. Notary Public,
Wall Street, New York.

June 1, 1866.

DR. MAGGIEL:—I take my pen to write you of my great relief and that the awful pain in my side has left me at last—thanks to your medicine. Oh, doctor, how thankful I am that I can get some sleep. I can never write it enough. I thank you again and again, and am sure that you are really the friend of all sufferers. I could not help writing to you, and hope you will not take it amiss.

JAMES MYERS,
110 Avenue D.

This is to certify that I was discharged from the army with Chronic Diarrhœa, and have been cured by Dr. Maggiel's Pills.

WILSON HARVEY,
New York, April 7, 1865. 37 Pitt Street.

The following is an interesting case of a man employed in an Iron Foundry, who, in pouring melted iron into a flask that was damp and wet, caused an explosion. The melted iron was thrown around and on him in a perfect shower, and he was burnt dreadfully. The following certificate was given to me by him about eight weeks after the accident.

New York, Jan. 11, 1866.

My name is Jacob Hardy; I am an Iron Founder; I was badly burnt by hot iron in November last; my burns healed, but I had a running sore on my leg that would not heal; I tried Maggiel's Salve, and it cured me in a few weeks. This is all true, and any body can now see me at Jackson's Iron Works, 2nd Avenue.

J. HARDY,
112 Georick Street.

Extract from Various Letters:

"I had no appetite; Maggiel's Pills gave me a hearty one."

"Your Pills are marvelous."

"I send for another box, and keep them in the house."

"Dr. Maggiel has cured my headache that was chronic."

"I gave half of one of your pills to my babe for cholera morbus. The dear little thing got well in a day."

"My nausea of a morning is now cured."

"Your box of Maggiel's Salve cured me of noises in the head. I rubbed some of your Salve behind my ears and the noise left."

"Send me two boxes; I want one for a poor family."

"I enclose a dollar; your price is twenty-five cents, but the medicine to me is worth a dollar."

"Send me five boxes of your pills."

"Let me have three boxes of your Salve by return mail."

I have over 200 such Testimonials

As this, but want of space compels me to conclude
